The Holy Family Childcare Center has made it through Halloween Madness! It was a busy and fun time for all of the children and staff. We now focus on the upcoming Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons. We are preparing for this by remembering what we are thankful for during a difficult Covid year. There are always things that God has given us even in times of trouble and we are focusing on teaching the children this during the month of November. We are also getting ready for the busy Christmas season and planning a way to have our Christmas Show/ Nativity virtually for the parents to share in the fun. It is going to be a busy two months ahead, so tune in and see what happens at the center.

If you are interested in Holy Family and would like to take a virtual tour, contact the Director at 215-298-4971 or email the center at cmanley@holyfamilychurch.org

PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE FOR THE ELECTION YEAR

Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mother of the Americas, pray for our country and protect it from all harm. Ask your divine Son to give it His choices blessings, blessings that will keep it a nation truly under God.

We thank you for the love and special protection you have showered on our country since its birth. We lift our hearts in a return of love to be worthy of your continued love and protection and we set our gaze on you as our guiding star.

Immaculate Virgin Mary, Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us, Our Lady of Guadalupe, the Hope of America, Pray for us.

For Tomorrow.

FOR ALL OF US.

"When you give to the seminary you become part of their mission to form men and make the future of our Church stornger."

A NEW HOME

NEWLY ORDAINED PRIEST

"I entered St. Charles Borromeo Seminary right after graduating from Bishop Shanahan High School. I came to the seminary because I truly felt called to God. I studied at the seminary for 9 years before being ordained a priest. The seminary gave me a deep sense of identity-intergrating a very strong faith and prayer life. They helped me to become rooted as a child of God. They also provided me with an amazing community, by bringing other young men from around the country together and having priests at the seminary who showed us a good example of a life of seal and love for the Church.

I arrived at St. Jude Parish one month after being ordained. It has been a great experience and very humbling. When you arrive as a new priest, you do not know anyone an no one knows you-it is a new place, a new assignment, a new home, and a new life. Joining this community has been a true blessing. Things have changed a lot since the global pandemic, and our new normal has been challenging but it is wonderful to see how much the parishioners love their parish and how essential it is for all of us to stay connected.

It is so important to support the Seminary Appeal because the seminary is dependent on the generosity of the faithful.

When you allow God into your life and give Him permission to make changes, He really will. I am so deeply grateful to be a priest."

Father Daivd O'Brien, Parochial Vicar St. Jude Parish
