As we slowly get back to normal, we are looking to increase our Lector pool. If you are currently a Lector who was waiting for the Pandemic situation to improve or have never been a Lector, but would like to become one, we would like to hear from you. If you are interested, please contact Kathy Duffy at (215) 518-2041 or Kathleen.duffy.kd@gmail.com. We would love to have you.

We are looking for Eucharistic Ministers as things slowly return to normal. If you are a Eucharistic Minister looking to return or have an interest in becoming a Eucharistic Minister, please contact Jeanine Censi-Lamont at the rectory 215-482-0450 or teethfiller1@aol.com

This week the childcare had a zoo theme. The childcare doors were decorated to follow this theme. The children made ladybugs, giraffes, and lions for art projects. They used the water tables, small pools and sprinklers to beat the heat and humidity. We are also looking forward to being able to use Fountain Street and our childcare parking for drop off and pick up again. The families will be able to come up Fountain from Umbria to reach us as the construction has progressed above the childcare.

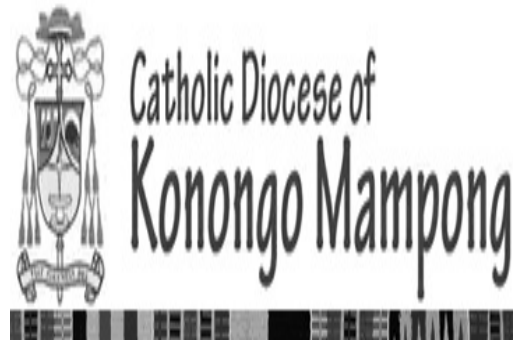

If you are looking for childcare and would like information on our childcare, contact us at 610-952-9186 or visit the website at www.HolyFamilyChildcare.org

PARKING LOT

We regret the fact that construction has made getting to our church property difficult for many drivers. The City has control of the construction. We do not have an ending date. We ask your indulgence in the meantime.

THE CHURH PARKING LOT MAY NOT BE OPEN. FOWLER STREET IS OPEN IN ONE DIRECTION. PLEASE USE DAYCARE LOT FOR YOUR PARKING OR HERMITAGE STREET. THE FRONT STEPS MAY BE THE SAFEST WAY.

STATEMENT OF ARCHBISHOP NELSON J. PEREZ REGARDING REINSTATING THE OBLIGATION TO ATTEND SUNDAY MASS

“We have all felt the impact of COVID-19 in as individuals and families. It has been a time of acute hardship and struggle, of separation and isolation. It has also had an impact on our lives of faith. Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, has been with us throughout this challenging period and is most especially near to us when we encounter him in the Eucharist. The Eucharist offers us His healing and peace, His mercy and reconciliation. It is now time for everyone to return to the Eucharist with renewed faith and joy.

As many aspects of life are now returning to normalcy, each Catholic Bishop in Pennsylvania will reinstate the obligation to attend Mass in person on Sundays and Holy Days beginning on Sunday, August 15, 2021, the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The Bishops previously jointly decided to dispense the faithful from this obligation in March of 2020 in order to provide for the common good given concerns over the developing pandemic. Now, with the impact of the pandemic considerably reduced, it is again possible for the faithful to assemble for the Eucharist. It is time to lift the dispensation from the obligation.

The obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days comes from our Baptism as Christians. Baptism compels Christians to unite themselves with Christ at the altar in his saving Sacrifice of the Cross. Participation in the communal celebration of the Sunday Eucharist is a testimony of belonging and of being faithful to Christ and to his Church (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2182). This is the foundation for the law of the Church that binds Catholics to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days (Code of Canon Law, canon 1247) and the Christian way fully to observe the Third Commandment, to keep holy the Lord’s Day (Deuteronomy 5: 12; Exodus 31: 15; Catechism of the Catholic Church, nos. 2180-2181).

This obligation, as is always the case, does not apply to those who are seriously ill, have a serious health risk, as well as those who have serious anxiety about being a part of large groups at this time. Likewise, the obligation does not apply to those who care for those who cannot attend Mass in person (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2181). Those who are legitimately excused from Mass on Sundays and

Holy Days are encouraged to spend time in prayer, meditating on the Death and Resurrection of the Lord, reading the Sacred Scriptures, and uniting themselves to Christ in his worship of the Father of us all. Those who are legitimately excused are also encouraged to view a broadcast of the Mass which is intended for those who cannot participate in person.

As Bishops, we welcome this moment of the reinstatement of the obligation for all Catholics in Pennsylvania. This is a moment to thank God anew for the great gift of the Mass and the Real Presence of Jesus to us in his Holy Body and Blood as well as the joy of gathering together as people of faith.”

Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez
Archbishop of Philadelphia

MISSION COOPERATION

The Mission Cooperation Plan for Holy Family Parish, father John Kyere will be here on the weekend of August 8th to take a collection up for his diocese.

The Catholic Diocese of Konongo-Mampong, Ghana, West Africa was created on March 3, 1995 by His Holiness Pope John Paul II, with the Most Reverend Joseph Osei-Bonsu as the Bishop. It was carved out of two other dioceses, namely the Diocese of Kumasi and the Diocese of Sunyani. About 90% of the territory of the new diocese of Konongo-Mampong belonged to the diocese of Kumasi, which was created in 1950. Konongo is the oldest church in the diocese, with its origins going back to 1917. The diocese is now proud of 54 parishes, 126 priests (106 diocesan, 20 religious), 155 lay religious (105 brothers, 50 sisters), 59 seminarians. The diocese has over 79,000 Catholics and runs 10 health facilities, eighty-nine kindergartens, one hundred and eight primary schools, thirty-one junior high schools, six senior high schools and a university, the Spiritian University College at Ejisu.

The Catholic Diocese of Konongo-Mampong, in response to the call of Christ and in union with the universal Church, is committed to working with all people, especially the poor, in the attainment of their social, health, economic and religious needs. It is the mission of the diocese to restore their human dignity to them, to liberate them from abject poverty, diseases, ignorance, superstition, injustice, mental slavery and despair so that they may bear witness to the Good News of Jesus Christ. In response to Christ’s invitation, the diocese takes up the challenge to work towards the promotion of Christian values among all the people. Through the administration of the sacraments, the diocese strives to nurture and strengthen both the physical and the spiritual needs of the people of God entrusted to its care.

Welcome!

Dear Holy Family Child Care Community,

We are so very excited to introduce two new members to the staff at Holy Family Child Care. Our new Director, Ms. April Moore, and our new Principal, Ms. Cassandra Fernandes, started July 19th. These two will bring to Holy Family Child Care their wealth of experience in child care and early childhood education, and both Ms. Moore and Ms. Fernandes are looking forward to dedicating their efforts to providing your children with excellent care. Please join us in giving a warm welcome to Ms. Moore and Ms. Fernandes

Ms. Moore was raised here in Philadelphia. She attended Chestnut Hill College, and received her degree in Early Childhood Education with a Director's Credential. She has over thirty years of experience in child care. Ms. Moore is also a family woman, with three sons and one daughter.

Ms. Fernandes has been taking care of children all over the world. She received her Master of Education from the Aga Khan University Institute for Education Development, as well as a Certificate in Science of Early Childhood Development from Red River College, Manitoba Canada. This will be her twenty-fifth year in the field of education. Ms. Fernandes also has two daughters at home.

Once again, we welcome Ms. April Moore and Ms. Cassandra Fernandes!

Sincerely,

Holy Family Child Care
