Nothing Compares to Being There is an Archdiocesan wide invitation to all the faithful primarily through electronic communication to recognize more profoundly the irreplaceable need to be in person for the celebration of Sunday Mass. For more information go on this website:

archphila.org/nothingcompares, the following resources will be made available in the coming weeks.

STATEMENT FROM ARCHBISHOP NELSON J. PEREZ REGARDING NATIONAL VOCATIONS AWARENESS

At the beginning of his public ministry, Jesus formed a group of twelve disciples who would follow him closely. He taught these men and prepared them to serve as the Church's first priests. Although their names and lives are familiar to us today, the Apostles did not begin their work with fanfare or acclaim. They were ordinary men invited by Jesus to participate in an extraordinary mission.

I ask all of you to reflect on the importance of priestly vocations to every facet of our local Church's mission. Fostering vocations to the priesthood must be a priority for all of us if we are to be effective in our proclamation of the Gospel today.

Archbishop Carroll High School, 211 Matsonford Road, Radnor, PA.

"Mary belonged to Joseph, and Joseph belonged to Mary, so much so that their marriage was very real, since they gave themselves to each other. But how could they do this? Behold the triumph of purity. They reciprocally gave their virginity, and over this virginity they gave each other a mutual right. What right? To safeguard the other's virtue." - St. Peter Julian Eymard

The first candle, which is purple, symbolizes hope. It is sometimes called the “Prophecy Candle” in remembrance of the prophets, especially Isaiah, who foretold the birth of Christ. It represents the expectation felt in anticipation of the coming Messiah.

The second candle, also purple, represents faith. It is called the “Bethlehem Candle” as a reminder of Mary and Joseph’s journey to Bethlehem.

The third candle is pink and symbolizes joy. It is called the “Shepard’s Candle,” and is pink because rose is a liturgical color for joy. The third Sunday of Advent is Gaudete Sunday and is meant to remind us of the joy that the world experienced at the birth of Jesus, as well as the joy that the faithful have reached the midpoint of Advent.

On the fourth week of Advent, we light the final purple candle to mark the final week of prayer and penance as we wait for the birth of our Savior. This final candle, the “Angel’s Candle,” symbolizes peace. It reminds us of the message of the angels: “Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men.”

Though the Mercy Home Advent wreath does not include a white candle, this is a tradition that has become popular in modern day adaptations.

The white candle is placed in the middle of the wreath and lit on Christmas Eve. This candle is called the “Christ Candle” and represents the life of Christ. The color white is for purity—because Christ is our sinless, pure Savior.
