ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA
EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Corpus Christi, June 11, 2023 Launches the Parish Phase June 2023 -June 2024 “...the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world” John 6:51 In Archdiocese of Philadelphia, all parishes, institutions and religious communities are invited to launch the Parish Phase of the National Eucharistic Revival with a Solemn Celebration on the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) on Sunday June 11, 2023.

CATECHESIS & INSTRUCTION

Catechesis and Instructions for the celebration of Corpus Christi should begin with the first Sunday of May, May7, 2023. In addition to local resources, additional resources will be available on the archdiocesan website as of May, 2023. Begin to announce your plans for Corpus Christi May 2023.

SOLEMN CELEBRATION OF MASS

The Mass is the centerpiece of the observance of Corpus Christi. A solemn celebration of the Eucharist that includes every member of the community should be planned. Now is the time to form a planning group for the Mass and Procession for Corpus Christi.

A EUCCHARISTIC PROCESSION

If possible, a Eucharistic Procession should be planned to follow the Solemn Mass. The ritual book, Holy Communion and Worship of the Eucharist Outside (Chapter 111.2) provides directives. If a Eucharistic Procession is not possible, then there should be a Holy Hour with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

A MESSAGE FROM MOST REVEREND NELSON J. PEREZ, ARCHBISHOP OF PHILADELPHIA AND MOST REVEREND TIMOTHY C. SENIOR, AUXILIARY BISHOP OF PHILADELPHIA AND CHANCELLOR OF SAINT CHARLES BOROMEO SEMINARY

Dear Friends in Christ,

Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary is the oldest Catholic institution of higher learning in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. The seminary began in 1832 ~ on the upper floor of Bishop Kenrick’s residence on Fifth Street ~ with five men seeking to respond to God’s call. By 1871, Saint Charles Seminary needed more space and a new home at the intersection of Lancaster and City Line Avenues. Over the past 150 years it has grown and changed at that location. Today, we welcome a diverse array of people each year as they embark on a formational journey to become priests, deacons, catechists, and lay men and women seeking to embrace ministerial roles who will be servant leaders after the Heart of Jesus Christ.

As priest alumni of Saint Charles, we are filled with deep gratitude for the way it prepared us to serve the Church we love.

As you know from your own personal experience, spiritual journeys, and the places we call home, evolve over time. The seminary’s ongoing evolution has brought us to a new chapter and the hope-filled prospect of a new home in Lower Gwynedd Township. We look forward to transforming our physical space into one that will flourish as a house of formation preparing priests, deacons, and other leaders for our Church for generations to come.

We are asking you to be a part of the Building Our Future: The Comprehensive Campaign for Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary because we know you share our love for the seminary and its mission.

Please partner with us and walk with the seminarians and students who will come to us at the seminary’s new location. While this is an extensive undertaking, together We will ensure that our vibrant seminary community of committed disciples has every opportunity to succeed.
